REPUBLIC SPECIAL Pittsburg, Pa., June 31-If over a game of ball was played end won by one man it was to-day's contest of St. Louis against Pittsburg. Hans Wagner, the big Dutchman from Carnegie, was the fellow who played the came and won for Pittsburg. It was his, and his alone.

When St. Louis slipped a little bit ahead in the first part of the game it was Wagner who pulled Pittsburg up even. When they once more pulled the game away it was Wagner who pulled it back again by hard individual play. bringing the winning run over for Pittsburg, and beating St. Louis 3 to 2. Manager Jimmy Burke to-night said: "It was not l'ittsburg bent us to-day. It was that

Beckley is back in the game, but looked sick. He was well received by his old friends, who, however, missed the ginger which Jake usually throws into the game at this station, but they knew the big et this station, but they knew the big tellow was rick.

St. Louis got away first. It was in the third liming that Beckley ambied round the corners for the first tally. His route was one long row of rifts. In the first place, Case whiked him, then made a wild patch. Then Leach, who had been sent to left in place of Fred Clarke, misjudged Smoot's smash, allowing it to get over him for three bases. This scored Jake.

The second score by St. Louis was made in the fifth inning. Josh Clarke made his second hit; Shannon made a short hit, Arndt sent them both along with a sacrifice, and on Beckley's out at first Clarke came over. This was all St. Louis got. Fittsburg got one in the third, when Wagner, first up, pasted the ball for a pair of bags. Howard and McBride were very easy, but Ritchey came along with a nice Wagner, first up, pasted the ball for a pair of bags. Howard and McBride were very easy, but Ritchey came along with a nice double, which rut the Dutchman over.

When the eighth inning opened it was found that St. Louis had accumulated another run and the score stood 2 to 1 in their favor. When Clymer and Leach both died it looked as if Burke's team was going to win, but it was not to be. Ritchey came up with two men down and hit for three bases. Then came Wagner, who had already two doubles to his ner, who had already two doubles to his credit, and he almost tore the hand off Arndt with his third hit, Ritchey tallying Arndt with his third hit, Ritchey tanying the tring run.

Wagner now stele second clean and was in position to score the winner if Howard could but hit the ball safe. Howard crashed one between first and second. Heckley taking the ball, Nichols running for the base. Howard beat both Nichols and the ball to first, while Wagner did cane of the speedlest bits of running seen in years, getting over the plate on the infield hit, coming all the way from second.

BROWNS WILL PLAY TRIPLE A TENNIS TWO GAMES TO-DAY

Rain Prevents Contest With Chicago White Sox-Charley Moran Goes to Indianapolis-Roth May Soon Join McAleer.

During the warming-up practice of the Browns and White Sox yesterday a thunderstorm came up, chasing the players Both Managers McAleer and Jones were | two hours this morning. disappointed, as the two clubs have three postponed games, one of which will be played this afterne This gives to the Browns two double beaders in two days, as McAleer's tribe meets the Cleveland crowd here to-morrow for two games, the Monday contest going over until later in the season.

Cleveland's violery over petroit again puts the Bines in the lead. Fielder Jones is anxious to wha from the Browns, so that he may go into Cleveland Independence Day at the head of the league.

Mealeer is just as anxious to get out of lest piece, and says the Browns are going along so nicely that the Chicago Club would have little chance of getting any better in the league while in St. Louis.

Suchanan and Glode are the pitchers slated for work in the Southe-header this afterneou, and Fatterson, Owen and "Doc" White will be the gunners against the locals, Jones only having three of his staff with him. The two ten-inning games lost by the Browns at Chicago by the same score of 3 to 2, and the victory of the Browns in the third of the series are good indications of the condition of the troupe after their greeling struggles in the East.

Charley Moran recently disposed of by the Browns to Manager Ed Barrows of the Indianapolis club departed last night at II p. m. for his new berth in the minora. Moran is to succeed Osteen as shortstop. Barrows has oftered to Charley a contract for next year at an increase over his makes to him a present of 100 at the time he signs the contract.

The old Senator shortstop has not played to his form since coming to St. Louis, claiming that he had a grievance against Messra. Hedges and McAleer and that the St. Louis climate did not agree with him. Moran has played most of the positions on the club, and while not an aggressive ball player is a clever fielder and ordinarily a good sticker.

Fielder Jones of the White Sox made an effort to secure Moran at the opening of Fielder Jones of the White Sox made an effort to secure Moran at the opening of the season, but failed. He also hesitated about waving claims to the former Brownie when the bulletins were sent to the various clubs of the league. Moran goes to the minors with none of the American League clubs having any claims to him. to him.

A month's good work at his old form will bring the youngster back into favorable notice. It was stated last night by a baseball official that Pittsburg looked with longing eyes on Moran, and that it is entirely probable that the Pirates will file their drafting papers on Moran as soon as he joins the Indianapolis Club.

With Moran's arrival at the Indiana capitol, it is probable that Catcher Roth will come to St. Louis to take his turn behind the bat with the local backstops. behind the bat with the local backstops. Roth has a strong arm and is said to be a good catcher. At the local headquar-ters of the Browns it was said that there was nothing definite as yet on Roth's coming to St. Louis, > Barr's and Grand-Leaders Will Play, While Nugents Will Oppose Scruggs, Vandervoort and Barney Team.

The opening games of the Retail Dry Goods Buseball League schedule will be played this afternoon, when the Scruggs. Vandervoort & Barneys will meet the Nusents at Phoenix Park, No. 7109 Florissant avenue and the Barrs oppose the Grand-Leaders at the Christian Brothers' College

The May Company's team, which is the fifth in the league, will be idle. This will be the case each Saturday, the teams resting in order throughout the season.

Both games will begin at 3 o'clock. As the managers of all the teams have announced that they have secured strong material, the race for the handsome trophy donated by the Press Association of this city undoubtedly will be close.

Games will be played every Saturday afternoon, rules of the American League to govern all contests.
